

Frameless Cabinet Construction

In frameless cabinet construction, there is no face frame, unlike traditional framed cabinets. The doors and drawers cover the entire front of the cabinet. The box is 3/4" construction using dowel joinery with minimal space between them.

SCHROLL CABINETS CRAFTSMANSHIP

Key Features

- Functionality
- Storage
- Accessibility

Frameless -
No Face Frame

QUALITIES TO CONSIDER

Provides a seamless finish	Maximizes storage and accessibility	Offers design flexibility for various decor styles	The cabinet boxes are available in thermo-fused melamine interior or finished plywood interior
----------------------------	-------------------------------------	----------------------------------------------------	------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------